Manuscript submission guidelines

The primary form of submission is a Word document via e-mail to lap@ucr.edu with the subject line “Author Name - manuscript submission.” Manuscripts should be no longer than 8,000 words, double-spaced, in English, Spanish, Portuguese, or French. LAP translates accepted non-English manuscripts. Include a cover sheet with the author’s name, contact information, affiliations, an abstract of 150 words, and five keywords.

Please see www.latinamericanperspectives.com for Style Guidelines (under the “Submit to LAP” tab where current calls for manuscripts, additional submission information, and description of the review process are also available). Manuscripts should be original work not previously published in English in the same or similar form. Submission of a manuscript implies commitment to publish in the journal. Authors submitting manuscripts to LAP should not simultaneously submit them to another journal. Manuscripts and inquiries may also be sent to the Managing Editor, Latin American Perspectives, P.O. Box 55540, Riverside, CA 92517-55540.

“ For over four decades Latin American Perspectives has been the journal to turn to for critical perspectives on the region’s complex socio-economic and political processes. It would be difficult to teach Latin American Studies without it.

Carmen Diana Deere, University of Florida

A valuable resource

- In six thematic issues per year, Latin American Perspectives provides
- Critical analysis of Latin America’s political economy—capitalism, imperialism, and socialism
- In-depth articles about the movements, ideas, and conflicts shaping the course of events in the region
- Access to the voices of Latin America’s critical intellectuals and leading activists

A multidisciplinary view

Latin American Perspectives’s vital multidisciplinary analysis includes:

- Anthropology
- Critical Theory
- Economics and Political Economy
- Political Science and International Relations
- Sociology and Social Movements
- Geography, Ecology, and Urban Studies
- History
- Media, Literature, Art, and Culture
- Women’s, Gender, and Ethnic Studies
- Film Studies and Reviews
