Manuscript submission guidelines
The primary form of submission is a Word document via e-mail to lap.ucr.edu with the subject line “Author Name - manuscript submission.” Manuscripts should be no longer than 8,000 words, double-spaced, in English, Spanish, Portuguese, or French. LAP transcribes accepted non-English manuscripts. Include a cover sheet with the author’s name, contact information, affiliation, an abstract of 150 words, and five keywords.

Please see www.latinamericanperspectives.com for Style Guidelines (under the “Submit to LAP” tab where current calls for manuscripts, additional submission information, and description of the review process are also available). Manuscripts should be original work not previously published in English in the same or similar form. Submission of a manuscript implies commitment to publish in the journal. Authors submitting manuscripts to LAP should not simultaneously submit them to another journal. Manuscripts and inquiries may also be sent to the Managing Editor, Latin American Perspectives, P.O. Box 5703, Riverside, CA 92517-5703.

During the years Latin American Perspectives has had a variety of editors, independent and critical knowledge about Latin America. Such a sustained effort is all the more remarkable as it has managed to address the most burning issues through solid empirical work and pragmatic theoretical analyses without losing sight of the frame of free learning the subcontinent since colonial times. Its continuation and flourishing is of great importance particularly in the current turbulent times.
